DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

[From the Milwaukee News, Oct. 28th.]

SPEECH OF SENATOR DOOLITTLE, AT MILWAUKEE.

Mr. President and Fellow-Citizens:—

For some months past I have been absent form my native land. I have been removed form the exciting scene of political strife.—I have hardly read the political newspapers of my own country, but during these months I have had leisure to reflect upon the situation of our beloved country. From all the reflection and thought which I could bring to bear upon it, I have been confirmed in the belief, which was forced upon me more than two years ago, namely: that the policy which was then proposed by Mr. Lincoln, immediately upon the surrender of the armies of the rebellion, to recognize at once the States of the South, to have them restored to all their constitutional rights and to their representation in the Union, was the only just, the only wise, the only Constitutional policy (Applause.) From that time forward I have struggled to carry that policy into effect. I believed then, and I am now more than ever firm in the opinion, that if, two years ago, immediately upon the surrender of the armies of the rebellion, the States of the South had been recognized with their Constitutional rights, and admitted to their representation in the Union, under the policy of Mr. Lincoln, all the difficulties which now surround us, both finanical and political, would have passed away. (Applause.) I believe that if two years ago that policy had been fairly adopted, the bonds of the Government of the United States, this day at six per cent., would command a premium in gold in every money center of the world. [Applause.] I will state the fact—which I hope no one will forget—I have met no intelligent man in Europe who has not expressed the same opinion, that if our States of the South had been admitted to representation in the Union, that the world could see that we were one people, one nation, with all the States represented and taking part in our legislation, our six per cent. bonds would not only be at par, but would command a premium in gold. Why not? Why should not American securities at six per cent. command a premium in gold, when the English three per cents. command ninety-three cents in gold?

No earthly reason can be given, except that these States are apparently divided and dissevered, that the States of the South are kept out of the Union, and denied all their rights in the Union by this Radical policy. I charge this home to the leaders of that policy. The whole responsibility rests upon that radical policy, which trampling the Constitution under its feet, violating their plighted faith, and the policy of Mr. Lincoln, the often avowed policy which elected him, refused to allow ten States of the Union all right to representation. (Applause.) Fellow-citizens, it is not my purpose to detain you for any length of time. I only wish to express in a few sentences two or three thoughts. The great, all absorbing idea, which underlies radicalism, is precisely the same idea which underlaid secession. (Applause.) What is that idea? Let us not deceive ourselves. Ideas rule the world. What was the idea which led the South into this rebellion? It was this. The Constitution has no authority over the Southern States against their will; They have a right to withdraw from the authority of the Constitution at pleasure, and therefore, after the passage of their ordinance of secession, the Constitution was practically dead in the States of the South. The people of the South went to war to enforce that idea. What did we do? We maintained precisely the opposite idea, to wit: That the constitution has supreme authority over the States of the South as well as the North, and that the States of the South should be made to acknowledge the supremacy of the Constitution. To maintain that idea we called two million of men to the field. We poured out our treasure and blood like water. To maintain that idea, we created this debt of three thousand millions of dollars. To maintain that idea five thousand of our sons went down to battle and to death. By the blessing of God we were victorious in maintaining that idea of the supremacy of the Constitution over the States of the South. When we, at length, after a long and terrible war of four years, compelled the South to surrender to that idea; when we compelled the people of those States, who made their appeal to the God of battles to decide the question between us, to surrender the controversy—when the South yielded and acknowledged the Constitution to be supreme, and that the flag of the United States was the flag to which they owed allegiance, then up rise Thaddeus Stevens, Charles Sumner, Benjamin Wade, and other radicals of the North, to proclaim anew the idea of the secessionists, viz: the Constitution is no longer the supreme law of the land in the States of the South; that we do not hold the States of the South by constitutional authority; that we hold them by the sword and the sword alone: not under the constitution, but outside of the constitution, by a power which is above the constitution.

That is the idea of Radicalism. IT IS NOT ONLY AKIN TO, BUT IDENTICAL WITH, THE IDEA OF SECESSION. IT IS THE ESSENCE OF REBELLION AGAINST THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES. Whether it is asserted by Jefferson Davis at the South, or Thaddeus Stevens at the North, it is a new rebellion against the government of the United States. (Applause.) We have by force of arms put down the rebellion of the secessionists at the South. We do not expect to be compelled to put down this new rebellion at the North by force of arms.—(Applause.) We expect to put it down by moral power alone, by argument, by reason, by persuasion, as we have done in Connecticut, in California, in Pennsylvania and Ohio, by the power of the ballot box.—[Great applause.]

Mr. President, I will not detain you longer. I trust the Americans will rise in the majesty of their strength, and by their moral power, by calm reason, by earnest and truthful argument, and by their votes, proclaim again the supremacy of the Constitution of the United States in the States of the South, not only in spite of the secessionists in the South, but in spite of Radical anarchists and revolutionists of the North. (Great applause.) I can very well see by the election returns that a change has come over the spirit of the country. When I come to Racine now, the place where I have lived for fifteen years, I am not met by an infuriated mob who would prevent me from speaking to the people of my own town.—(Great applause.) A mighty change is being made. (Cheers and great applause.)—If I attend a meeting in the neighboring county of Kenosha to proclaim these doctrines there, in which I believe the very existence of constitutional liberty to us and to our children is involved, there will be no one to interrupt or insult me, to prevent their utterance or to interfere with me in any manner. (Applause.) Why this change—simply the work of time? Men are beginning to reflect, to reason, to think for themselves. The excitements and passions and prejudices which war has engendered are passing away, and cool, dispassioned judgment is once more asserting its legitimate sway.

I thank God for what I already see, and I think we have occasion to be yet more thankful for what is yet to come (Great and prolonged applause.)

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.

FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.

DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.

BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.

BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.

Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,

LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make, and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals from $1 to $2.

Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.

CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

IMPORTANT TO CAROLINA SHIPPERS.

THE NEW

Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk

FREIGHT LINE,

VIA PETERSBURG, VA.,

Comprising the following great Freight Routes:

THE POWHATAN

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,

PETERSBURG AND WELDON,
RALEIGH AND GASTON,
NORTH CAROLINA,
WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c. &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways ☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

CONSERVATIVE TICKET FOR THE CONVENTION IN WAKE.

HON. DANIEL G. FOWLE,
REV. BENNET T. BLAKE,
PRIESTLY H. MANGUM, Esq.
DR. JNO. A. McLEAN.

BEWARE OF THE WOLVES!

The real friends of the negro race in the South—those upon whom they are immediately dependent, after all, for sustenance, employment and the means of gaining a livelihood,—have reason to deplore a marked change, for the worse, in their deportment and temper. The fault is not so much theirs, as it is of a class of mountebanks and incendiaries, who are constantly giving the negroes to understand that there is a party in the country ready to sustain them in any claim they may advance, and which asks no return for its services except the privilege of controlling their votes.—This encourages presumption and conceit. They have been flattered, until they have acquired the most exalted ideas of their own importance and deservings, and, next to the privilege of voting, they want and expect landed property. The general impression prevails,—and it is strengthened by developments in Tennessee,—that the possession of part of the land of the whites has been promised as the result of their connection with the Leagues. It has been by such promises that the Radical agitators, imported and native, scattered throughout the Southern States, have been able to effect so thorough and permanent an organization of the negro element, and to vote them, in almost solid column, against the whites,—in a word, to establish a black man's party.

The colored man, with whatever of natural discernment he has, would have arrived at proper and reasonable conclusions in this whole matter, if he had not been tampered with and grossly deceived,—if his prejudices had not been excited and his passions inflamed by the most base and violent appeals to both.

Left to himself, he could not fail to see through the duplicity, hypocrisy and meanness of those who are misleading him and arousing his animosities against the white people of the South. He could not fail to perceive that while the Republican party is held up as the peculiar friend and champion of his rights, it has denied him the boon of suffrage at the North, and has given it to him at the South, not out of any love for his race, but solely in the interests of party. He could not fail to realize that the Conservatives of the South,—which term embraces nine-tenths of the white people,—have never advocated or entertained the purpose of depriving the negro of any privilege or right essential to the enjoyment of his freedom. They have had the political power, and in no instance, during the two years after the war which elapsed before negro-suffrage was thought of as a Radical party scheme, did they enact a single law designed to oppress the freedmen; but, on the contrary, in some of the States, acts almost identical with the "Civil Liberty" bill were adopted.

Here in North Carolina, more than twelve months before negro suffrage was dreamed of by the Radical party in Congress,—when their caucuses, indeed, in every instance, were committing them unequivocally against it,—when the now leading Radical organ in the State hoisted to its mast-head, as the most cardinal of Union landmarks, "unqualified opposition to negro suffrage,"—when Mr. Blythe, a prominent Radical in the Legislature from the County of Henderson, complained that he and other "Union men" were persecuted, in that they were "charged with being in favor of negro suffrage,"—at such a time, the Conservative Legislature of North Carolina, freely and voluntarily, in advance of the passage of the Civil Rights Bill, without dictation from any quarter, gave the negro the right to testify in the Courts of Justice. The principal opposition to that measure came from Radicals. Mr. C. L. Harris, who is now a sort of chief "cock-a-lorum" with the Leagues and blacks, the stereotyped chairman of negro-Radical meetings, was particularly prominent in his hostility to that act of justice and right!

We know that our words, in the main, fall upon deaf ears. We feel—and we lament the fact,—that our colored population are being herded into enmity to the white race, and thus lured to their destruction, by political Pariahs and demagogues. But if there are any of them, who have not yet surrendered entirely their souls and bodies into the keeping of these men, let them ponder these things. If they necessitate that most deplorable of results—the formation of parties, based on color,—their ruin is as inevitable as that the sun shines above this earth of ours.

They will have an opportunity of showing, by their acts, on Tuesday next, whether they desire this state of things or not.—There is a terrible responsibility resting upon them, and we would that they could appreciate it!

RADICALISM in North Carolina is dead forever, if the white citizens of the State will turn out and vote for good, true, reliable men to represent them in the Convention!

HON. R. Y. MCADEN.—The nomination of this gentleman, by the Conservatives of Alamance, is equivalent to an election. We are glad that North Carolina is to have his services in this exigency.

MARK THE DIFFERENCE!

Judge Fowle, Mr. Blake, and the other Conservative candidates for the Convention in Wake, come out candidly and tell the colored people that they favor qualified suffrage for their race, on the basis of intelligence or property. They have no disguises or concealments. They are willing that they should have the same privileges that are accorded to colored men in New York or Indiana. They favor drawing such a line of distinction between the virtuous and intelligent, on the one hand, and the ignorant and vicious, on the other, as will not pull the former down to the level of the latter, but invite the latter up.

Mr. Williams, one of the Radical nominees, in his conversations, takes precisely the same grounds. We have it from unquestionable authority. But he is held up to the colored people, on the stump, (we believe he says nothing, himself,) and in the papers, as an advocate and friend of unqualified negro suffrage! That's the game.

Mr. Andrews now proclaims himself a great champion of the negro, and yet it is in evidence that, frequently, of late, he has declared that, under no circumstances, could he be induced to vote for one!

And even J. H. Harris, the negro nominee and orator, himself, has often declared that but comparatively few of his race were fit to exercise political privileges.

As to Mr. Franklin, he has been black all the time, for aught that we know to the contrary.

MR. BENTON S. D. WILLIAMS.—We stated, some days since, that it was rumored that Mr. B. S. D. Williams, one of the Radical nominees for the Convention, in this County, was an Infidel, or an unbeliever in Revelation, and that it was further rumored, that he was an Atheist. We tendered Mr. W., or any of his friends, the use of our columns, for the denial of these grave rumors, if they were unfounded. As no denial has been sent to us, we are authorized to infer that the rumors are true; and we have the confession, from Mr. Williams, himself, that they are true,—so far, at least, as they relate to his disbelief in the Divine Revelation!

These are the facts: On the Sunday succeeding the day of Mr. Williams' nomination, a gentleman of this City, in company with a prominent officer of the United States Army, was at Mr. W's. house. In the course of conversation upon the subject of his candidacy—an open, public conversation, at which several others were present,—Mr. W., in substance, said that he had never heretofore considered himself eligible to any office, for the reason, said he, "that I am a Deist!" Every one knows what a Deist is—one who believes in the existence of a God,—the God of nature—but denies revealed religion. Will Mr. Williams deny this public avowal? Will any of his friends deny it for him, by authority? If so, the proof shall be forthcoming.

It is a part of the religious education of a Jew to reject the Divinity of Christ. It is the national faith, inborn and inbred in every man of that people. But how any man, born of Christian parents, in the full noon-blaze of enlightened nineteenth century Christianity, can believe, or rather disbelieve, as Mr. Williams does, passes comprehension. And yet Mr. W. is put forward as a representative of Radicalism in North Carolina! Is it possible, that he can receive the support of the people of Wake? He looks almost exclusively to the colored people for support. They are, ordinarily, a race of profoundly reverential feelings and of religious emotions. Will they vote for him, because he is a Radical, and on the ground that Radicalism covereth everything else?

Is Mr. W., holding such views, eligible to a seat in the Convention? Be that as it may, as things are, he is not eligible to "any office or place of trust or profit in any civil department of the State," if our existing Constitution is worth anything.—That instrument expressly disqualifies men like Mr. Williams.

THE ASSERTION that there is the slightest imaginable or possible danger that, upon the inevitable success of the Conservative party and its rise to power, the negro will be in any wise, manner, shape or form, re-enslaved, is simply a ridiculous lie, and is refuted by the common sense of every sane man, without argument. Slavery, as an institution in this government, is dead and beyond the reach of resurrection. None know this better than those who are thus seeking to keep alive animosities and engender enmities between the two races, for their own personal advantage. Such an argument would not avail with any people less ignorant than the most silly and imbecile negroes, but with such it has its influence, doubtless. The miscreants who thus deceive and mislead them should be held up to public scorn and reprobation as political knaves and disturbers of the public peace.

RADICALISM ILLUSTRATED.—The Alabama Convention presents a spectacle illustrating the beauties of Radicalism. It is composed of a mongrel and motley conclave of whites and blacks,—the former to name and fame unknown, and the latter illiterate ex-slaves. In the hands of such a concern, sustained by military authority, the Radicals place the destinies of a great State. If the Radicals obtain control of the Convention in this State, exactly such another spectacle will be presented here, to shame our annals. Think of that, all ye who have a pride in and a love for the "Old North State," and spare no effort to drive off the foul birds of prey!

OH! OH!—It is authentically announced that Gen. O. O. Howard, Commissioner of Freedmen's affairs, has left Washington on a tour of inspection through the "unreconstructed" States, and that he will visit Kansas, before his return, in order to ascertain what the prospect there is "of giving employment to idle freedmen." This is significant, in view of the fact that Kansas has just refused to allow negroes to vote in that State. "Call you this backing your friends?" The Freedmen would do well to make a note of this.

REMEMBER that a full white vote in North Carolina is a Conservative victory!

[From the Pittsburg Post, November 8]

NEGRO EQUALITY.

On Monday, in the Supreme Court, now in session in this city, a most important decision was rendered, relating to negroes forcing themselves into the company of white people in railroad cars, prior to the passage of the act of Assembly of March last, granting them that privilege. The case in which the question originated was that of a negro woman, who had taken a seat in one of the cars of the Philadelphia and Westchester Railway, set apart for white people, and upon the conductor requesting her to take a position elsewhere, allotted to negroes, she refused, remarking that she had a right to sit where she pleased, whereupon she was removed, and soon after brought suit for damages, alleged to have been sustained by being compelled to occupy a different seat. She obtained a verdict in the lower Court, but the defendants appealed, and the case was fully argued before the Supreme Court in Philadelphia, which announced its decision on Monday, reversing the judgment of the Court below, and ordering a new trial.

The opinion of the Court was delivered by Judge Agnew, which was sustained by Chief Justice Woodward, Judge Thompson and Strong. Justice Reed alone dissenting.

The following is the conclusion of the opinion:

"It is clear, therefore, that under the Constitution and laws, the white and black races stand in a separate relation to each other. We find the same difference in the institutions and customs of the State.—Never has there been an intermixture of the two races, socially, religiously, civilly or politically. By uninterrupted usage the blacks live apart, visit and entertain among themselves, occupy separate places of public worship and amusement, and fill no civil or political stations, not even sitting to decide their own causes. In fact, there is not an institution of the State in which they have mingled indiscriminately with the whites. Even the common school law provides for separate schools when their numbers are adequate. In the military service, also, they were not intermixed with the white soldiers, but were separated into companies and regiments of color, and this not by way of disparagement, but from motives of wisdom and prudence, to avoid the antagonism of variant and unmixable races. Law and custom having sanctioned a separation of races, it is not the province of the judiciary to legislate it away. We cannot say there was no difference in fact, when the law and the voice of the people had said there was. The laws of the State are found in its Constitution, statutes, institutions and general customs. It is to these sources Judges must resort to discover them. If they abandon these guides they pronounce their own opinions, not the laws of those whose officers they are. Following these guides, we are compelled to declare that at the time of the alleged injury there was that natural, legal and customary difference between the white and black races in this State which made their separation as passengers in a public conveyance the subject of sound regulation, to secure order, promote comfort, preserve the peace, and maintain the rights both of carriers and passengers. The defendants were therefore entitled to an affirmative answer to the point recited at the beginning of this opinion."

EXCITING RUMORS—THE LAW OF SEDITIOUS CONSPIRACIES.

Under this head the National Intelligencer has a long article, which thus commences:

"It is believed by many well-informed persons in Washington that individuals could be named among the members of the Rump, as well as less important personages, who have conspired, by force, intimidation and threat, to prevent certain high functionaries from holding and exercising offices, trusts and places of confidence in the Government of the United States. It is alleged, moreover, that the conspiracy referred to is still on foot, notwithstanding the complexion of the recent elections, and contemplates an early consummation. These suspicions, put forth, however, with uncommon confidence by those who circulate them, are said to be encouraged by recent elaborate republications of expressions used from time to time by gentlemen who have been supposed to represent themselves as speaking the sentiments of a distinguished but reticent officer."

The act of Congress applicable to such cases, and the constitutional provision exempting members of Congress from arrest during their attendance at their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same, (except for cases of treason, felony and breaches of the peace) are cited by the Intelligencer. Its article thus concludes:

"If there be, then, any persons—members of Congress or others—great or small, who contemplate the expulsion of any incumbent of office under the United States by intimidation, etc., and who count on the principle that they cannot be interfered with until after they have committed overt acts, etc., they may take to mind the law, as quoted above, and consider whether the scheme is safe as a plan, saying nothing of it as an attempt. Such plans are forbidden by law, and the safest, as well as the best way for public, as for private men, is to obey the laws of the land, and keep from condign punishment."

NEGRO SUFFRAGE AGAIN KILLED.—In Kansas and Minnesota, at the late elections, the proposition to allow negroes to vote was submitted to the people, and was rejected by a large majority. There are but few negroes in either State, and they were born free, yet these Northern people will not let them vote, but their Representatives in Congress want to force the Southern white people to put themselves under negro rule almost entirely. Great hypocrisy and inconsistency.

It Congress would leave the question with the Southern people, it could not be long before they would voluntarily confer the right of suffrage on such colored persons as could exercise it intelligently. Time will prove, if circumstances permit, that the former slave owners are their truest friends. —Charlotte Democrat.

STEVENS AND BROWNLOW.—The Nashville Banner says:

"Thaddeus Stevens was in his library, so a private letter from a gentleman in Washington, who ought to be cognizant of the fact, informs us, when he heard that Brownlow was elected to the United States Senate. "The lucky dog!" said Thaddeus. "And all on my thunder, too. Here am I floundering in the lower House, where I have been for years, unable to get out; and this old scamp, that never bet a cent at faro in his life, and knows nothing about science, shuffles, cuts and deals his cards so as to lead the rest of the company. The Democracy 'll say its Pluto promoted over Satan."

SENATOR TRUMBULL REPENTS.—A Washington letter in the Baltimore Gazette says:

"Senator Trumbull, who is now here, has, in connection with different individuals, so expressed himself as to create the impression that he has at last in reality become disgusted with the doings and threatenings of the rotten and fallen party with which he has heretofore been acting, undoubtedly against his better judgment. The doors of the triumphant Conservative party are not yet closed to honest converts. Let the Senator enter at once."

DAMAGING EXPOSURE.

Thurlow Weed, Radical, says that "the annual stealing from the Government would more than support its legitimate expenses, and leave a margin toward the payment of the interest of the national debt."

The statement is undoubtedly true, but, as the recent elections show, the people are everywhere beginning to feel the effects of so much corruption, and are protesting against it. Diminished business activity, scarcity of employment and heavy taxation have caused the Northern people to enquire into the political situation to an extent never before known. In whatever direction they look they see evidences of systematic plunder and fraud, and as they cannot expect to see better days until the rascals are turned out of office, they have very properly gone to work to set them adrift. If there were more economy in public affairs there would be less talked about repudiation of the public debt. The millions which now go into the pockets of the dishonest officials would soon remove the debt without a single additional cent of taxation. The growing voice of the Northern people is that the money shall in future be so applied. They have had enough of the Radical thieves now in office, and propose to place the Government once more in the hands of honest men.

Then, again, the reconstruction of the Southern States after the Radical fashion, by which the negro is elevated above the white man, has opened the eyes of the Northern people to the fact that things cannot go on in the way they are, without producing the most serious consequences, and they are determined to put a stop to it. It is madness to suppose that the Anglo Saxon can be kept in subjection to an inferior race. There is no human power that can keep white men under the dominion of white and black negroes.—Savannah News.

NEW YORK.—Later returns indicate that the State Senate will be much closer, politically, than was at first supposed. Fifteen democrats, fifteen republicans and two independent candidates have been elected.—One of the independents, Mr. Stanford, is a conservative, and will probably vote with the democracy in all measures of importance. The other, Mr. Allen, is a radical, so that the Senate is likely to be tied. The country democratic papers, however, claim the election of their candidate in the Schoharie district, which, if correct, would give the conservatives a working majority of two. The House of Assembly now stands 71 democrats to 57 republicans.—N. Y. Herald.

If the colored people don't want to lose their places as laborers, they must pay more attention to work and less to politics. If negroes do not discharge their contracts faithfully, it may be expected that a different class of laborers will be introduced in the South. We want to see a fair trial made, and let the black man prove that he is industrious as a free-man. The white people of the South have been and are disposed to give him a fair chance, but we have recently heard a great deal of complaint about the carelessness and idleness of many freedmen employed on the plantations during the past Summer.—Charlotte Democrat.

"J. A. Craig, a colored man, who was formerly a slave, spoke at a Radical meeting in New Orleans, on the evening of the 21st. ult., against the introduction of Chinese coolie labor into the cotton and cane fields of Louisiana. He declared the coolie to be an ignorant being, particularly as regards our peculiar civilization, and comes in direct conflict with the natural tillers of the soil."—Exchange.

Santa Anna's good fortune (if so we may call it) has not yet forsaken him. He has arrived at Havanna, having been liberated from the imprisonment to which he was condemned after he failed of being shot.—He is again an exile, as he has often been before, and has again the opportunity to resume those plottings for power in which, though he often fails, he frequently succeeds.

Absurd—The belief of the freedmen that they will be the top-rail. Vide Ohio.

Bought—Those that make Radical speeches to assemblages of the "trooly loil."

Caught—The delegates to the Raleigh Convention who paid Billy Holden $5 for charters to establish Union Leagues.

Free—The mixing of whites and negroes.

Hard—To get money owing to you.

Good—The election returns from New York and other Northern States.—Statesville American.

General Mower, commanding in Louisiana, was recently charged by an ex-federal General with having received money to influence an appointment to the office of sheriff. The accuser has, however, retracted his statement, but it is believed General Mower will demand a Court of Inquiry in the matter. Slips of doggerel verse ridiculing Mower are in general circulation in New Orleans.

On the morning of the election in New York the leading Radical journal said:—"Remember that the forces arrayed against us in this campaign are the same, man for man, whom we conquered in the war. Their victory would be a triumph of the principles and men of the party of treason and rebellion." Now, according to this, the rebels are in a majority of 45,000 in that State!

A REPUBLICAN KICKS FORNEY.—Old Thurlow Weed says:

"Colonel Forney, who has a keen scent windward, evinces his sagacity by jumping on the Grant train. He imagines that it is a Radical machine, but it does not matter a great deal what the fly thinks of a cart-wheel!"

THE WISCONSIN ELECTION.—Returns received from Wisconsin indicate that the Republican majority in the State will be about four thousand. Although there were no elections for members of Congress, four out of the six Congressional districts have probably gone Democratic.

The recent manifesto of Forney in favor of Gen. Grant has awakened considerable feeling among the friends of Chase and other candidates, and loud threats are made of his being outsed from his position as Secretary of the Senate, where the opponents of General Grant are said to be in the ascendant.

The Independent doesn't say a word about the elections, editorially, but devotes its double leads to homœpathy. They perhaps consider the Radical vote "ultimate attenuation."

It seems to be pretty well ascertained that Gen. Sherman will assume command of the Department of Washington on his return to that city, which will take place about the 17th. inst.

It is reported in a New York paper that a man in Tarrytown had his neck dislocated recently, but it was immediately reset by a surgeon, and he is now considered out of danger.

Your true Radical will say, abandon the Constitution, abandon the laws, abandon all the rights of white mankind, but save, oh save, the Freedmen's Bureau!—Louisville Journal.

The Abingdon Virginian states that unless its delinquent patrons come forward and pay their dues, it will cease publication on the 6th. of the coming month, when its present volume will expire.

B. King, charged with violating a City Ordinance, was fined $5.

Ralph Wood and Charles Sash, U. S. soldiers, arrested for stealing two blankets from Nancy Jolly, were lodged in the Guard House and turned over to the military authorities.

TEMPERANCE.—Gen. R. B. Vance, President of the State Council, we are requested to announce, will lecture on Temperance at Marion, McDowell County, Thursday night, 14th inst; Morganton Burke Co., Friday night, 15th; and Lenoir, Caldwell Co., Saturday night, 16th.

He will be present at the State Council which convenes in Wilmington on the 22d instant.

THE OLD STORY.—J. W. Hood (negro) and W. A. Mann (Yankee) are the Radical candidates for the Convention in Cumberland County,—the home of Strange, and Cameron, and Dobbin, and Eccles and Toomer!

PITT.—Rich, the improvised Sheriff of Gen. Sickles, and Col. Laflin, a New York ward politician, are the Radical nominees in Pitt County. The Wilson Carolinian says of them that, judging from their political affiliations, they are both of that class of "loyalists" now flooding the South, who, in leaving their former homes, consulted the wishes and interests of their neighbors.

The King of Pain, a horse trainer, named Harper, somebody's circus, and D'Orsey Ogden's theatrical troupe are all threatening Danville from different quarters. Alas! poor town.

Rev. Mr. Kingsbury, of Warrenton, preached in the Baptist Church of Danville on Sunday. The sermon preached on the opening of the Fair by this gentleman is spoken of by all who heard it in the highest praise.

An exchange says that nine hundred and ninety millions of men use tobacco.

A crusty old curmudgeon says that about one half of the above number buy it.

The Tobacco Plant, published at Clarksville, has hauled down the name of Guvner Plowpint from its mast head as its choice for Governor of Virginia, on the ground that he (Plowpint) "cannot be elected either by white men or negroes."

MR. CHASE.—We said on Friday last that as Mr. Chase had been laid on the shelf, he might preside at the trial of Jefferson Davis without fear of consequences. Forney's Press of the same date surprises us by declaring that Mr. Chase's friends are "urging" him to preside at said trial. And for what reason? Why should the Chief Justice of the United States be called upon to perform this disgraceful duty? What argument can be educed powerful enough to operate upon so august a personage?—Let Forney answer in his own language:

"The friends of Chief Justice Chase are urging him to preside at the coming trial of Jefferson Davis at Richmond, and advising him that if he acts in the case with prudence he will add greatly to his presidential chances."

What a reflection upon the Chief Justice? His worst enemy could have said nothing so severe. The idea of the Chief Justice of the United States presiding at the trial of a man for an offence the penalty of which is death, and doing so from no higher motive than to "add to his presidential chances!"

But how will Mr. Chase be thus enabled to add to his presidential chances? Will he hang Jeff. Davis, and thereby please the Radicals? Not so. The Greeley party, the ultra-Radicals, are Chase men already.—It is either the conservative Republicans or the rebels themselves that Mr. Chase would operate upon. We have, in common with all the friends of the illustrious offender, desired from the beginning that Mr. Chase should preside at the trial. We do not wish to see Underwood honored as he would be by having the privilege of conducting such a trial. But we had never supposed that Mr. Chase would expect to use that trial as a ladder upon which to mount into the presidential mansion.—Great is Radicalism!—Richmond Dispatch.

The Chamber of Commerce of New York have resolved to memorialize Congress for a repeal of the tax on cotton. The following is the resolution adopted:

Whereas, The value of cotton is less than half as much as twelve months ago, owing to causes of no temporary nature; therefore,

Resolved, That the present tax on cotton is unjust and oppressive, because no other important agricultural product is burdened in like manner, and especially so when it is considered that three-quarters of the crop has ordinarily to find a market abroad; that by driving agricultural industry to other pursuits than cotton in the soil and climate which are the best in the world for the production of cotton, so far as known, the continuance of the tax is a glaring waste of national resources; that while the tax discourages the production of cotton in our own country, it encourages it abroad, to the great detriment of our shipping interest and of the internal trade of the United States; that the tax is injurious to the freedmen and the laborers in the South, because it obstructs the cultivation of land and employment of labor; that the present value of cotton is so low in the interior of the South that the tax amounts nearly to 20 per cent. upon the gross value; therefore the tax ought to be abolished with the least possible delay.

GRANT.—In view of this position, it now becomes necessary that the people should know the opinions of any man likely to become a candidate for the Presidency, in order to know that he is positively with them against the extremists they repudiate. It is especially necessary that we should know the opinions of General Grant more clearly than we do. He is now the most prominent candidate before the nation for the highest office in it. His patriotism and honest purposes are well known; his judgment and ability in certain affairs are unquestioned, and he has shown a disposition to national economy of the happiest promise; yet it would be well if we had from himself positive knowledge of his views on the political condition of the country. In the absence of such knowledge of the opinions of the General, Lieutenant-General Sherman stands forward as the most distinguished soldier whose sentiments are known, and known to be in harmony with the present ideas of the people. It is time, therefore, that General Grant came out. Let him develop his lines, that people may know where he is.—N. Y. Herald.

THE NEW LEGISLATURE OF MARYLAND.—One of the results of the late election in Maryland will be that one of the great national political parties will not have a single representative in either branch of the State Legislature. This has never before occurred in any State since the foundation of the Government, and probably will never happen again. Yet, the cause is palpable enough. For years, and until very recently, a very handful of unscrupulous men have ruled the State with an iron rod, and tyrannized over the great body of the people, until they have made them as one man in resisting further aggressions; and not content with what they have done, made a bold attempt to perpetuate their tyranny by subjecting the State to the nominal control of Congress, but in reality aiming at a perpetuation of their own power by foreign bayonets.—Nat. Intel.

A little girl of three years was saying her prayers, not long since, when her little brother, about four years old, came slyly behind and pulled her hair. Without moving her head, she paused and said:—"Please, Lord, excuse me a minute while I kick Herby."

The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle says cotton is no longer a remunerative crop, and insists that the cotton planters of Georgia should set about at once the preparation of at least one fourth of their best land for wheat.

A new idea with regard to weddings has been invented in Connecticut. A citizen of that State announces that his golden wedding will come off just thirty years from now, and offers a liberal discount on any presents his friends then design to make him.

The wardrobe of Mrs. Lincoln is still on exhibition in New York. The goods are selling slowly. The New York Sun says: "Next week a national subscription list, endorsed by some of the most prominent men in this city, will be put in circulation in behalf of the widow."

Raymond, of the New York Times, reminds us forcibly of what a little Frenchman once said of a notorious character about Savannah: "By gar, sare, he talk so fast I'ave caught him in the truth one time."—Columbus (Ga.) Sun.

Shanks, a mongrel member of Congress from Indiana, has been lecturing to the negroes in Richmond. That is right and proper—Shanks addressing shins.—N. Y. Day Book.

A nameless negro of Savannah voted the bill of fare of a restaurant. Insatiate freedman! would not a "square meal" suffice?—World.

PRIZE FIGHTERS CAPTURED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12—P. M.

A prize fighting party was captured over the Long Bridge, this morning, by Schofield's soldiers. Schofield is determined to stop prize fighting in his district. The military was secreted in the woods and surrounded the party before any alarm was given. None escaped.

The parties were subsequently turned over to the civil authorities and released,—the law requiring the reading of the riot act, before arrest, which was omitted.

ARREST OF LINDSAY, THE NEGRO DELEGATE TO THE VIRGINIA CONVENTION—TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS.

RICHMOND, Nov. 12, P. M.

The military authorities to-day arrested Lewis Lindsay, the colored delegate, for using language calculated to array the blacks against the whites. He is to be tried by a Military Commission.

The Fall Term, at which Mr. Davis is to be tried, commences on the 25th, and his trial will certainly go on. From the venire, it appears that the Jury will be largely composed of negroes!

FORNEY sticks to his text. He swears that, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding, "the views attributed to General Grant, in our article of Thursday, are those he has held and holds still; that he has not expressed annoyance or indignation at their publication, and that he has not intimated to any one that the article in question did not correctly represent his opinions."

We call the previous question—namely, What are those views? We desire an answer to but one question—Is General Grant in favor of negro suffrage? The Chronicle will not dare to assert that he is, although it has intimated as much. This intimation was, however, intended only to break the force of its own fall. Let the press with one voice continue to repeat, until an answer be obtained, the important question—Is General Grant in favor of negro suffrage?

NEW JERSEY.—The Democrats have carried New Jersey by 20,000 majority and have a majority in the Assembly on joint ballot of 34. Last year the Radicals had a majority of 6.

The Supreme Court of the State of Missouri has just rendered an important decision, to the effect that the famous test-oath, so far as it applies to voters and office holders, is unconstitutional.

DIED:

In Charlotte, N. C., on the 1st inst., Miss JENNIE BURWELL, aged 16 years.

A few weeks ago, she was in this City, and by her gentle winning manners, won the esteem of all her associates. The beautiful verses in our Poet's corner were written by one who knew her well, and sat by her side when the Angel's wing swept over her. H.

At her residence in Chowan County, N. C., on the 11th day of October, 1867, Mrs. MARY A. SKINNER, relict of Joshua C. Skinner, deceased, aged 37 years.

The writer of these few lines knew the deceased intimately. She was a lady of most excellent judgment, of great decision of character, yet tender, gentle, affectionate and modest. Left a widow with four little children; stripped by the war of nearly all her estate she did not despair, but went to work trustingly and courageously, to provide for the wants of herself and family, and in answer to her prayers and labors, the dark clouds were lifting from her horizon None but those who knew her well and witnessed her self-denying efforts, can appreciate her lovely character.

It is hard for us to bow to this mysterious dispensation, and we are able as yet to hear only the throbbings of our own sad hearts May we all emulate her example, and be ready when the Bridegroom cometh! M.

Large Grape Farm For Sale.

THIS FARM IS SITUATED IN HALIFAX County, North Carolina, in a very healthy and pleasant neighborhood. It contains over

500 ACRES OF LAND,

of which 300 are in cultivation. The soil is well adapted to the growing of Corn, Cotton, Wheat, Grass and all the cereals. It contains

3,000 VINES NOW BEARING GRAPES.

These Vines are mostly of the Scuppernong variety, and for 35 years there has not been a failure in this variety to produce its crop. It is the most healthy, the most vigorous and the most productive of any vine yet discovered. 1,000 gallons of Wine may be made from ONE ACRE OF VINES. The wine is said to equal any Madeira, and a Champagne Wine may be made from it. One single Vine has been known to produce TWO HUNDRED GALLONS of Wine AT ONE CROP. For eating, the Scuppernong Grape is far ahead of all others. The crop for 1868 from this Vineyard may be safely estimated at from 5,000 to 7,000 gallons. It contains, also, over of choice varieties, the earliest and latest; and also, a fine variety of

PEACHES, FIGS, PEARS AND CHERRIES.

This Farm has all the necessary Buildings, and is situated in a portion of North Carolina which is FREE FROM CHILLS and where the water is delightful, and the climate pleasant. The cold is never severe enough to injure vines however delicate, and there is no need of protection from it at any time.

The above is a fine opening for a profitable investment. Apply to GARRETT & CO.,

HOME CERTIFICATES

From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examined its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
A. B. NOBLES, M. D.,

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine

W. A. DARDEN, SR.
Wilson, May 11th, 1867.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis." I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glassy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad tetter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,
W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

DAILY SENTINEL.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1867.

From the Charlotte News.

"AGED SIXTEEN YEARS."

Fold her fingers over her breast,
Never again will its throbbings rise;
Fill them with flowers and let her rest.—
Shining angels in Death did sign so
Came last evening and closed her eyes,
And bore her soul to its native skies.—
GOD has willed it, and so 'tis best!

Pure as the lily's dewy sheen,
Fair as the roses round her spread,
Last September she was sixteen—
This is November and she is dead!
Sweetly she sleeps on her snowy bed,
Our hands and lips on her lovely head,
But God's boundless Universe between!

Far too lovely to lay away,
Under the graveyard's gloomy mould!
All too precious that dust and clay
Should such treasure of love enfold!—
Wait till Time's rapid race is rolled,
And bright with a blessedness untold,
She will rise at the Judgment day.

Never now on her shoulders slight,
Shall pain, or sorrow, or sin be laid;
Robed in raiment, whose spotless white
Never will mildew or moth invade,
As the Angels she stands arrayed—
Beauty that never will fleet nor fade—
Bathed in the bliss of eternal light!

Saved and safe in immortal bowers—
Life and its wearying warfare done,
Gladly the glory gilded hours
Sparkle with rapture as they run.
Heaven's journey has just begun,
The goal is gained and the crown is won,
Circlet of stars and am'ranth flowers!

Beautiful child, her footsteps trod
On thornless roses for sixteen years;
Touched not smitten, she bent to the rod,
Leaving us thorn-wreath, and cross and fears;
Passed from earth's heart aches, and pain and tears
Straight to her home in the crystal spheres,
The great white throne of her Father God!

FANNY DOWNING.

[Correspondence Chattanooga Union.]

AMUSING ILLUSTRATION OF THE WORKING OF A NEW TENNESSEE LAW.

Dear Union:—I am a victim of misplaced confidence.

As you are aware, our noble and patriotic Legislature passed a bill last week, giving to the loyal Africans the privilege of riding in first-class cars.

I thought I saw an opening for a good speculation, when that bill passed the Legislature.

Accordingly, I proceeded to put some burnt cork on my face and hands, and borrowed $20 from old Proc, under the pretense that I wanted to canvass Davidson County, for the Knoxville Whig.

I then proceeded, in my disguise as a loyal man, to the depot of the Nashville & Chattanooga Railroad, and purchased a first-class ticket.

Armed with this, and a copy of the Press & Times, containing the law, I attempted to enter the first-class car among "the white folks."

The brakeman looked at me savagely, and I trembled in my boots, but he let me pass.

This was a disappointment to begin with, for I wanted to make that hundred dollars off the Company, which would just set me up in business.

The conductor looked at me fiercely, but he had read the law, and didn't want to be fined and imprisoned, so he said nothing.

The passengers glared at me with such ferocious eyes, that I did not take a seat till after the train started, but remained at the door, humming a little song applicable to the circumstances.

As the train got in motion, I began to look out for a seat.

I saw a rough looking codger near the stove, and heard him talking about the persecution of loyal men in Middle Tennessee.

I at once walked up and sat down by his side, remarking,

'Fine day, sah!'

He gazed at me in awed astonishment for about two minutes, and said,

'Get out of this, you —— nigger.'

'What did you observe, sah?' I inquired.

'I told you to git! ——— you! You've no business in this car.'

'Has you seed dis yer, boss?' said I, showing the Press and Times containing the law to him.

'Don't care a ——. The law says nothing about passengers, and you can't ride in this car with me.'

'Isn't you a Radical, boss?'

'Radical as ——, but no —— nigger can ride with me, so git!'

I told him I couldn't see it in those lamps and the infernal cuss rose up from his seat, and lifted me by the coat collar out of mine, and commenced dragging me to the door.

I told the conductor to help me, but he only grinned and said he had read the law, and it said nothing about what passengers might do.

In the meantime, this inconsistent Radical had dragged me to the rear platform, and just as we passed a good muddy place, he "lifted" me.

As I fell, I saw the conductor and brakemen grinning, and the passengers all snickering.

I lost by the operation my fare to Chattanooga, and my best oh-we-never-mention ems were utterly ruined.

Moreover, I can't get that hundred dollars, nor have the conductor fined and imprisoned.

If this isn't being a victim of misplaced confidence, I don't know anything about it.

As soon as I picked myself up, I went to the Freedman's Bureau, but they could do nothing.

Loyal men are not safe in Tennessee yet.

I must have the law amended, for I can't pay old Proc that twenty dollars until I can make a raise.

On the whole, however, I think I'll wash my face and turn white again.

It isn't a great advantage in law, but blood is thicker than water, and it is still a good thing, socially.

Yours Whitely,
ALLY GATOR.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQ'RS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 18, 1867.

General Orders No. 101.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto,—it is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete, to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said State shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, It is ordered:

First, That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered to strike the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2d, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the Supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867

Fourth. The said election will be held in each County or District at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Fifth. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United states.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at eight o'clock in the forenoon and closed at four in the afternoon, of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election as a delegate in the Convention shall serve as a Judge of the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867 and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD

AND

NORTH CAROLINA GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORT and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $293,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and south, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South than any other Line.

NOTICE!

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.
